Bob Roden Quintet to perform March 26 at the Spotlight in Fireside Room

By Brian Pennebaker
Events coordinator

Berkeley-based jazz group The Bob Roden Quintet will perform classic mainstream jazz at The Spotlight in the Fireside Room on Wednesday, March 26, from noon to 1 p.m.

The show – the quintet's third performance at Rossmoor – will feature classic tunes spanning the great eras of jazz, from Louis Armstrong through Duke Ellington and beyond. Songs will include "Misty," "Autumn Leaves," "Take the 'A' Train" and many more favorites.

Led by trombonist/vocal-

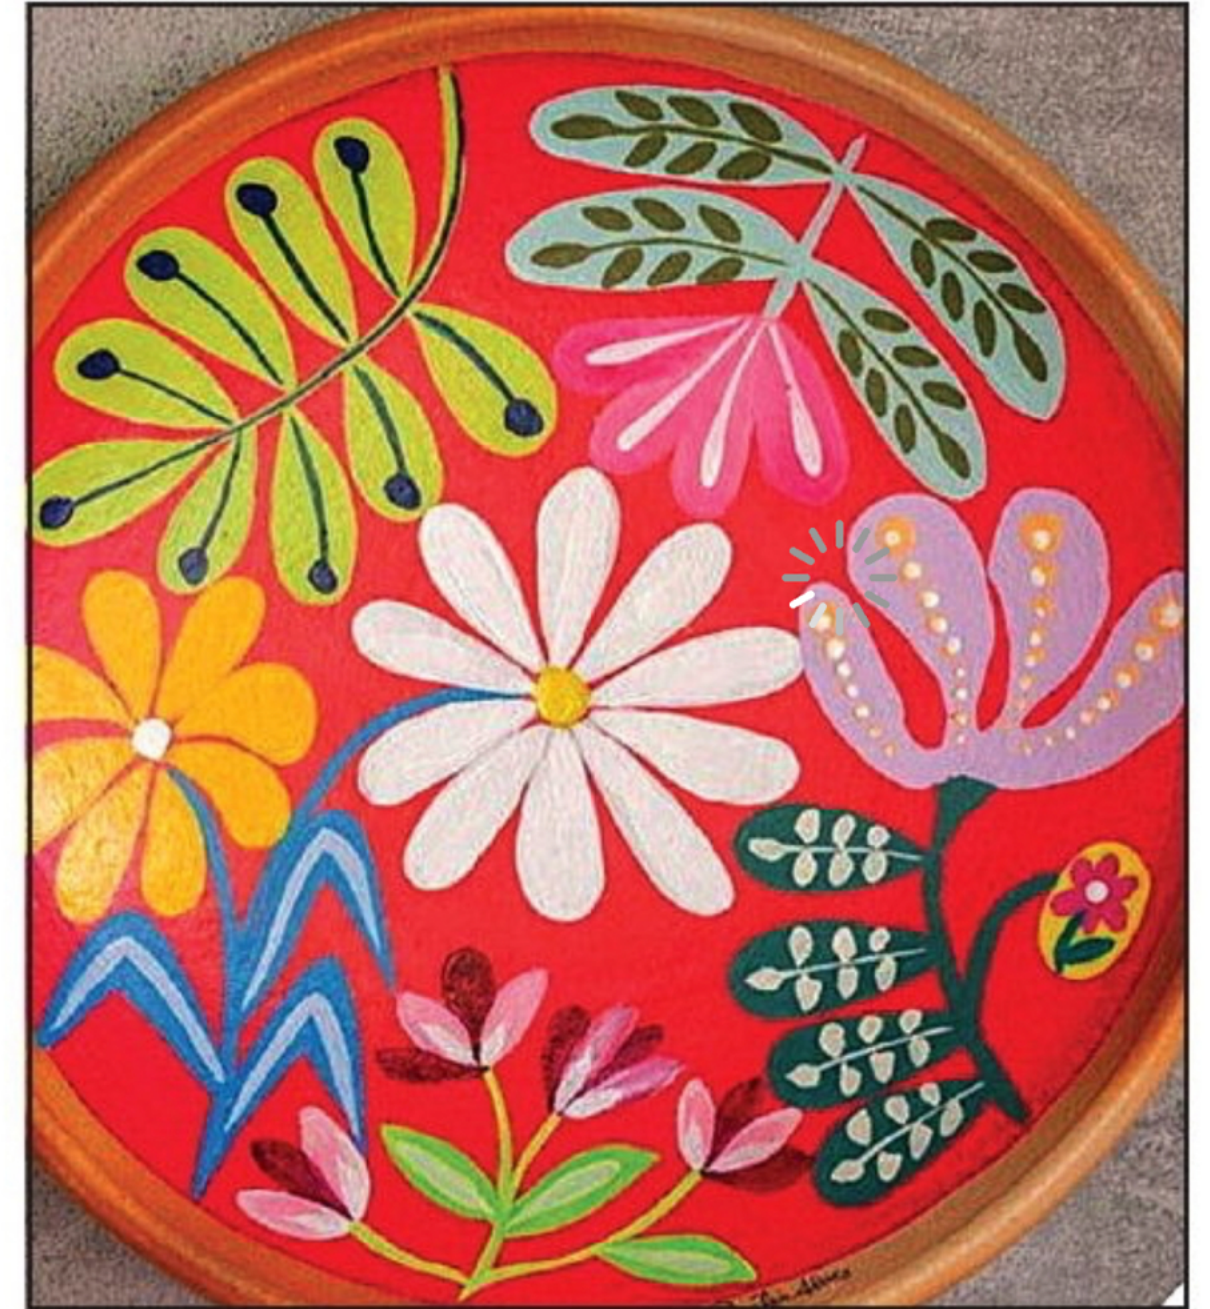

Bob Roden returns on March 26 to Rossmoor.

ist Bob Roden, the quintet includes sax, piano, upright bass and drums. Now in its eighth year, the group has twice played featured slots at the Piedmont Jazz Festival, and next month will make its fourth appearance in the renowned concert series at San Francisco's Cadillac Hotel.

Roden came from a family of musicians and became a full-time professional himself at age 20. After spending a decade touring North America alongside some of the biggest music names, he became a successful business attorney, as in-house counsel for both Lucasfilm and Pixar Animation Studios.

The Recreation Department will have hot dogs, chips and pie for sale before the show. This free concert is sponsored by Rossmoor Recreation.
